

CASTORIA

CAS TORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the

Bears the Signature of

Inst. N. In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

for the new auditorium, and the permit was granted yesterday by Inspector Beck. According to the plans filed for inspection in Mr. Beck's office the auditorium will cost $3,155, but this represents only about half the cost of the building, as one large portion has already been erected.

The pastor, the Rev. G. T. Forrester, who has been untiring in his efforts to push through the plans for the new auditorium, states that he hopes to see the work begun

An unsuccessful attempt to force an entrance into the home of Mrs. R. Robinson, 1015 McDonough St., was made by an unknown man early yesterday morning. Although the thief succeeded in making an escape, it is believed that he carried with him some of the shot from a shotgun which an inmate of the house fired at him.

In the darkness of the night no distinguishing marks were visible. According to the police, the robber could be described upon white to "dark" complexion, and the police are according to the report made to the Third Police

The store owned by Miss Mattie Woods, at the corner of Seventh and Perry Streets, was also entered by thieves early yesterday morning and the till rifled. Fortunately the store had no cash in the till, but a few pennies was in the cash drawer, and all of this fortune nothing was disturbed.

Patten-Williams.

A pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday morning in the parsonage of the DeSatur Street Methodist Church, when Miss Mary F. Williams, of South Richmond, be-

Immediately after a ceremony the couple left for Atlantic City and other points in the North. After July 30 Mr. and Mrs. Patton will be at home to their friends at 2111 West Main Street, Richmond.

Roberta aporing.
A. R. Roberts, of 23 Perry Street, a fireman of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, who suffered a broken leg when he fell from a ladder he was engine Sunday in Rocky Mount, is resting quietly in the Memorial Hospital.

The train bearing a wounded man was met at the Byrd Street Station by Dr. Turman, of the city ambulance, and he was immediately taken to the hospital.

Line Barrel Affre.

Rain last night caused spontaneous combustion in several barrels of lime on Grove Avenue, and No. 10 Engine Company was called out to extinguish the fire. The barrels went up in smoke, but there was no other damage.

OBITARY

T. H. Ridgeway.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., Jan. 12.—T. H. Ridgeway died here to-day, after a long illness, in the sixty-third year of his age. Besides his wife, he leaves several children. The remains will be taken to Nelson to-morrow, where the funeral and interment will be held.

Goggins E. Moore.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 12.—Goggins E. Moore, a well-known resident of Lynchburg, died this morning at the Protestant Hospital, Norfolk, after an illness of four or five days of pneumonia. The body is to be brought to Lynchburg to-morrow afternoon for burial. In addition to his wife, he leaves three children.

Deaths at Southwile.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Henthaw, Va. June 12.—William Bradshaw, son of Aaron Bradshaw, of Flint Hill, this county, died of diphtheria.

Mrs. Mary Frances Forester died suddenly Saturday morning, after a lingering illness. Interment was in the family cemetery at "Holyoke," and services were conducted by Rev. W. F. Dunaway. He is survived by her husband, Jam E. Forester.

R. D. Embrey.

[Special to The Mes-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., June 12.—R. D. Embrey, who died five days ago in lower Fauquier county, at the ripe age of eighty-six years had been a member of Grove Baptist Church for sixty-eight years. He was three times married, and leaves a family of twelve children, thirty grandchildren and thirty-five great-grandchildren, the oldest of the 14 being seventeen years.

Henry Welch.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., July 12.—Henry Welch died here to-day at his ninety-fifth year. He was native of Ireland, having come to this country when sixteen years of age. He was one of the founders of St. Ann's Catholic Church here, having come here when there were less than half a dozen houses in Bristol.

Judicious Advertising. will increase your business. Let us help you plan, write and insert your ads. Experience has taught us how to do this work effectively. Suggestions and advice free.

FREEMAN ADVERTISING AGENCY, INC.,
Mutual Building,
Richmond, Va. Virginia.
Phone 2413.

It has the Look of the taste. Liggott's Orangeade is a million times as good as the Orangeade at the fountain. It is made from oils, but from pure Orange Juice. Deliciously cold and refreshing. Sold for 5c, only at Polk Miller's, The Rax, Store, 324 East Main Street